International AML, Sanction and PEP Report

We have sourced through our Experian Agent Network this International Report on your instructed target business. The enclosed credit report confirms the existence of the target business and any known relevant subsidiary companies along with named directors, officers and shareholders of the target business where available.

This information forms the basis for your initial AML compliance enabling the checking of Sanctions & PEPs on both the target business and its directors, officers and shareholders.

The Sanction & PEP reports on the target business and selected individuals are performed as a SmartSearch retro bureau service accessing our in-house hosted Dow Jones Factiva Watch-list Database which comprises over 1,100 worldwide watch-lists and these are updated daily.

Having completed the Sanction & PEP checks, SmartSearch will continue to monitor your client's business and associated individuals on a daily basis against future changes in Sanctions & PEPs. Where a new match occurs SmartSearch will email your nominated compliance contact person and alert them to the facts of the change.

The Sanction & PEP reports are detailed in the next section of this report.

In addition, the summary financial performance information provides you with an initial insight to the business performance along with an indication of possible credit risk. We would advise you to commission additional credit checks prior to setting any significant credit limits as this credit report has been sourced solely for the purposes of providing base information to enable AML, Sanction & PEP Compliance.

If you request documents to validate an individual's identity you may want to consider using SmartSearch to validate them, protecting your business against the use of fraudulent counterfeit documents. SmartSearch can validate around 12 different styles of government documents ranging from passport, driving licence, visa, work permit and citizenship documents, etc. In the absence of online databases to verify an individual's identity this is the next best process to give you confidence in the documents you are processing.

Thank you for requesting this SmartSearch International Report, if you require any further assistance, then please do not hesitate to contact your Account Manager.

Kind regards
SmartSearch Client Services
